2011 Canadian Winner/Championships

The competition is scheduled to occur in the first full week in July at the University of Manitoba Athletic Centre in Winnipeg.

The most up-to-date source of information for the competition - hotels, schedule, forms, etc - is the CBTF website. The 2011 Canadians have a set of pages, located at <http://www.cbtf.ca/canadians2011> [9]. Already you can find details about:

Pre-Event Update

The CBTF Pre-Events are the entry level to competition. The Pre-Event specific set routines provide simplicity, proper skills progression and promote proper baton and body technique. Athlete's evaluations are based on a standard national CBTF grading system.

A Pre-Event Update [13] has been prepared and posted on the website. It highlights the key changes to the Grading Sheets and reinforces the performance expectation and Event Focus for these events. All athletes, coaches, judges and parents are encouraged to have a look [13] at this material.

The updated CBTF Competition Score Sheet CD [14] is available on the website as a free download.

Medley Update

As we begin the 2011 competition season, it is always good for coaches and judges to review, update and refresh in all of the events. For the Medley event, it is important that everyone is knowledgeable and completely understands the concept and all changes to the scoresheet.

Deandra Leslie and Ron Kopas, themselves members of the original Medley Event Committee, have prepared a Medley Update [15] that is posted on our website. It highlights the Event Philosophy, includes Focus Reminders, describes the Baton Movement allowed in each of the three Medley sections, and includes some Special Pointers for coaches and judges to consider for this season. All athletes, coaches, judges and parents are encouraged to have a look [15] at this material.

The Medley Score Sheet has also been updated for this year. The updated CBTF Competition Score Sheet CD [14] is available on the website as a free download.

CBTF Declarations FAQ

No one area seems to cause as much confusion for coaches and club directors as group declarations. To help eliminate that confusion, here is a brief list of Questions and Answers.

- What is a Declaration?

There are currently only two types: the CBTF Group Declaration [16] and the 2011 International Cup Intent to Compete Declaration [17].

In the past, there were also declarations for WBTF Pair and WBTF Team, but these were eliminated by the CBTF Board of Directors in the fall of 2009.

- Why do we have the CBTF Group Declaration [16]?

The CBTF Group Declaration [16] is used to ensure that each group is conforming to the CBTF group rules and regulations, such as: CBTF membership requirements, group average age, prohibition against self-competition, etc.

In the past, the group's CBTF Level of competition was determined by the Individual Group Status of the members, which required a CBTF Group Declaration [16]. As of the Fall of the fall of 2009, the CBTF Level is determined by the coach at the beginning of the competition season, so the CBTF Group Declaration [16] is no longer used for that purpose.

- What events require a CBTF Group Declaration [16]?

The CBTF Group Declaration [16] is required for all CBTF Group Events (Pom Pom Team, Dance Twirl Team, CBTF Team, Parade Corps and Theme Production).

- What events do not require a CBTF Group Declaration [16]?

No declaration is required for the Pre-Group event.

- What is the deadline for CBTF Group Declaration [16]?

This varies from province to province - you should confirm the deadline with your Provincial Group Events Rep or your Provincial Technical Representative. CBTF requires that the CBTF Group Declaration [16] be submitted no later than the Provincial Winner/Championship entry deadline - but each province is free to establish an earlier deadline, and many have.

- Where do I send my CBTF Group Declarations [16]?

The CBTF Group Declaration [16] is completed by the club and sent to the Provincial Group Events Rep. The Provincial Group Events Rep reviews the Declaration for accuracy and then forwards it to the CBTF Data Input Co-Ordinator and the National Group Events Rep.

- How do I submit my CBTF Group Declarations [16]?

The form is available on the CBTF website in both PDF and MS Word format. There are two options for submission:

- 1) The form can be printed, signed and mailed
- 2) The form can be completed electronically (in MS Word) and sent by email. In the case of email submissions, the Club is strongly encouraged to follow-up with the Provincial Group Rep to ensure the email was received.

- Why do we have the International Cup Declaration [17]?

Canada is allowed to send up to 6 athletes in all Individual and Pair Events/Divisions/Levels and up to 3 Teams/Groups in each Level.

The 2011 International Cup Intent to Compete Declaration [17] is used to determine which events required a Qualifier competition to determine the Contingent members. Beginning with the 2009 International Cup, and as a cost-saving measure for our athletes, CBTF implemented a policy that only those Events/Divisions/Levels that had more participants interested than Canada is allowed to send would require a Qualifier competition.

- What if I missed the International Cup Declaration deadline?

After the initial International Cup Declaration deadline, spots in some Events/Divisions/Levels were still available. Those remaining vacancies can be filled by athletes following the Late Declaration Process [18], strictly on a first-come first-filled basis. Once all spots in an Event/Division/Level have been filled, no further declarations for that Event/Division/Level will be accepted.

The Late Declaration Process [18] is described on the website.

- When does the membership of an International Cup Pairs, Teams or Groups have to be finalized?

The final rosters for the Pair, Team and Group events are required by May 23. This flexibility recognizes that some of these Pairs/Teams/Groups may get modified depending who qualifies in which Individual events. This is the latest possible date this still allows us to meet WBTF entry and athlete accreditation deadlines.
