In 2010 the inaugural Sharon Holliday Award for Sportsmanship was awarded posthumously to Sharon Holliday, an active and involved baton parent. The criteria for this award are modeled on the example she demonstrated and are as follows:

- A CBTF member (parent, coach, athlete, judge, volunteer) who exhibits the true meaning of sportsmanship as displayed by their interaction with other CBTF members at baton-related events throughout the year.
- This person need not have made their mark at the national level; however, being a good sport at the local, provincial, and national level, as well as showing good sportsmanship to CBTF members outside of their club and province, shall be taken into consideration.
- A recipient may win this award more than once.
- There shall only be one recipient in a given year.

This award will be presented at the 2024 Canadian Championship.

The nomination requires a one paragraph profile of the Nominee, not to exceed 250 words, that supports the Nominee's display of true sportsmanship which validate consideration for this award.
